

Friends,

This is an update for our upcoming Rally at Seasons in the Sun. The charity we have selected is “ Life Recaptured”. This organization helps victims of human trafficking. They offer a safe house, counseling, education and support for these women. Nancy and I recently had lunch with the director, Brandy Crisafulli, and the stories are heartbreaking. The evil in the world is difficult to comprehend. She is requesting gift cards from Target or Walmart for these ladies. We are hoping she can join us Thursday evening for a brief presentation.

Sunday, December 3, is a free day. There is a very nice golf course about 10 minutes away if anyone would like to play. Contact me to arrange a tee time. Nancy and I hope to play if time allows. There is also a pickleball court and tennis. On Monday night the camp provides bingo. This is for the entire camp but should be fun. You must purchase cards (very cheap) and there are prizes.

We will also be having a 50/50 raffle. The proceed of this raffle go to support the next rally. At the last rally we raised $110 to help purchase the food for this rally (thank you Chuck, Debbie, Linda and Walter for this great idea). Because of that we are able to provide all the meals.

Looking forward to a great rally.

Pam, Joey, Nancy and Tony, your hosts.
